

Bachelor in

Politics (B.A.)

Your Profile

For you, politics is more than what happens in the news. You not only want to understand the society in which you live, but also change it. Because for you, politics is not something that politicians create, but rather something that happens from below. You want to develop ideas, convince people, and put projects into action.

Key Information

In this course you will learn to understand all facets of political science (political philosophy, international relations and comparing political systems) in a way that allows you to develop critical thinking to drive change. You can specialize in

- (1) Political Communication,
- (2) Activism and Political Change or
- (3) Sustainable Development.

During a semester abroad you can deepen your skills at one of our partner universities.

Career Opportunities

- Political risk researcher
- Scientific Assistant for Politicians
- Community Organizer
- Public Affairs Consultant
- And more, varies on specialization
