

Bachelor in

Communication Management (B.A.)

Your Profile

You believe that our world is all about communication: This is why our world needs people like you in all kind of areas: In marketing departments, in the field of public relations for companies and non-profit organizations, but also in HR and finance departments. You do not only like to communicate but you are also fascinated by the psychological backgrounds, formal genres and social dynamics of communication. In particular, you believe that stories are not only one of the oldest, but also most convincing ways of communication. With that knowledge in mind, you can not only work for companies and organization, but understand and transform society!

Key Information

The curriculum focuses on both communication and management and their overlaps. It has a strong focus on all areas where you need storytelling approaches. It follows an interdisciplinary approach combining management studies, marketing knowledge, communication studies, psychological approaches, and cultural studies.

There is a strong focus on applied skills like developing strategic campaigns and digital communication, but also in reflective potential of understanding communicative processes in our society. In a semester abroad, the students can specialize their skills at one of our partner universities.
