

Bachelor in

International Relations (B.A.)

Your Profile

You believe that we are meant to break down borders. You are passionately interested in what is happening in the world and you soak up information like a sponge. The major issues and challenges in our world are exciting to you. You love to discuss issues of power, peace, security, international development justice and human rights. You want to be socially engaged and you are curious about other cultures and ways of thinking. Finding solutions to a major challenge is extremely rewarding to you.

Key Information

The curriculum focuses highly on understanding the context of international politics. You can specialize in

- (1) International Security,
- (2) Human Rights and International Law or
- (3) Development Studies.

The content of the studies interlock as you will learn how to encourage knowledge and values when acting as an intermediary for other cultures. In a semester abroad, the students can specialize their skills at one of our partner universities.

Career Opportunities
